Where data was not available from the external provider, the fund manager has made an independent assessment based on in-depth knowledge of each individual company. Were sustainable investments aligned with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights?

Nærmere opplysninger:

The sustainable investments were aligned with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights. There were no breaches of these guidelines for any of the Fund’s investments.

The EU Taxonomy for sustainable activities sets out a “do no significant harm” principle by which Taxonomy-aligned investments should not significantly harm EU Taxonomy objectives and is accompanied by specific Union criteria.

The “do no significant harm” principle applies only to those investments underlying the financial product that take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities. The investments underlying the remaining portion of this financial product do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Any other sustainable investments must also not significantly harm any environmental or social objectives.

How did this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

Data has been obtained from an independent data provider and an assessment of the most important negative impacts has been made. For some of the indicators, the Fund has absolute thresholds that companies cannot exceed. This applies to the indicators that largely overlap with the Sustainable and Responsible Investment Policy for Odin Forvaltning, such as indicators 4, 5, 10 and 14. No companies were in breach of these indicators this year. For the other indicators, the Fund focuses on seeing a positive trend in the figures over time. Several of the indicators have not been common for companies to report on. This applies in particular to indicators 5, 6, 8, 9, 11 and 12, where there is very low coverage in the reported figures. Where data is not available from an external supplier or the company’s own reporting, the fund manager has made a separate assessment of the company’s performance for relevant indicators. By means of dialogue and exercising voting rights, the Fund has engaged portfolio companies to ensure better information and good risk management of the companies’ impact on the relevant and most important negative sustainability impacts.

Enabling activities directly enable other activities to make a substantial contribution to an environmental objective.

The graph below displays in green the percentage of investments that were aligned with the EU Taxonomy. As there is no suitable method for determining the Taxonomy-alignment for sovereign bonds,* the first graph shows the Taxonomy-alignment of all investments of the financial product including sovereign bonds, while the second graph shows the Taxonomy-alignment only for the investments of the financial product excluding sovereign bonds.

*For the purpose of these graphs, "sovereign bonds" consist of all sovereign exposures.

Transitional activities are economic activities for which low-carbon alternatives are not yet available and that have greenhouse gas emission levels corresponding to the best performance.

¹ Fossil gas and/or nuclear related activities will only comply with the EU Taxonomy where they contribute to limiting climate change ("climate change mitigation") and do not significantly harm any other environmental objectives of the EU Taxonomy (see the explanatory note in the margin to the left).
